

6516205158.txt

May I STRONGLY but with respect oppose any action that would not allow satellite radio to broadcast weather and traffic information. I plan on using my XM radio this summer while travelling and having vital traffic and weather information BEFORE I get within range of a regular radio signal is vital. Like many of you, I'm sure that you would like to have that information far enough in advance before making decisions as to what area and what road to take.
Respectfully,

Gene O'Brien